SMOKEY YUNICK'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY BROUGHT TO LIFE BY JOHN DELOREAN

SEX, LIES & SUPERSPEEDWAYS, THE ABRIDGED AUDIO VERSION OF SMOKEY YUNICK'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY TO BE RELEASED SEPTEMBER 15, 2002

Carbon Press, the publishing company established by Smokey Yunick, announces the release of an abridged audio version of his critically-acclaimed autobiography, Best Damn Garage in Town...The World According to Smokey. Sex, Lies & Superspeedways (available as a four-tape set for $24.95 or a 6-CD set for $29.95) contains over six-and-a-half hours of stories from Smokey's days as a B-17 pilot, the early days of racing, his favorite place on earth and his family. Pre-sales are available now and it will be released on September 15, 2002.

John DeLorean and Smokey were good friends for over 40 years, dating back to John's time at Pontiac. Through the time they spent working together, Mr. DeLorean brings an insight and understanding that almost makes you think it is Smokey is reading it himself. Since Smokey's book was not politically or grammatically correct (then again, neither was Smokey), the audio book received the same treatment – Mr. DeLorean gets caught up in the stories and his laughter was not cleaned up.

Carbon Press, LC was founded by Smokey Yunick and is owned by his family, in order to insure that his book would be published just as he wrote it. They are dedicated to preserving Smokey's legacy as one of America's truly unique individuals and publishing works from people who are not interested in white-washed "as told to's."

[A media sample that includes several chapters on CD is available by request at wade@smokeyyunick.com.

Full media copies will be available in early September, before the official release.]
